JUN 10 9 50 AM '75

Mr. Mills has been assigned to this Staff slightly over one year, and this represents the first fitness report prepared for him. He has been under the supervision of the undersigned for approximately seven months. Although he was initially inexperienced in the Industrial Security Program, Mr. Mills has demonstrated his flexibility in quickly adapting to the intricacies of this assignment. During this period, Mr. Mills attended the Defense Supply Agency training course which has contributed to his overall effectiveness to this program. Mr. Mills' maturity and dependability makes him a real asset, and his enthusiasm and thirst for additional knowledge and techniques to apply to this assignment should aid immeasurably in his future growth with this office.

Mr. Mills does not have any supervisory responsibilities, however, he is cost conscious and judicious in his travel assignments.
